Mayor Fahrer briefed the Board of Aldermen on a meeting he held Thursday, May 28th with public works employees Brian Schieter, Dean Smith, Larry Westfall and clerk Barb Cameron.

The remainder of the meeting was discussion regarding the 2015 anticipated retirement of City Clerk Olive Wood. Information provided in the board packets included

- Areas of change if any
- Notice of position available used previously
- Job description
- An organizational chart
- Spread sheet of other cities, positions, and wages

Due to the flat and declining sales tax the city's has some hard decisions to make. Many areas were discussed including all departments, positions and ways to make changes and still stay within budget. The city attorney had mentioned to the city clerk that the Board had no control of the city's revenues coming in, but they did have control of the expenditures going out.

- Spread sheet with the cities of Camdenton, Eldon, Lake Ozark, Lincoln, Osage Beach, Sunrise Beach, and Warsaw
- Information will be provided at the City Clerk's meeting on June 17th
- Board to review and make suggestions for ad in newspaper
- Copy clerk/administrator job descriptions
- Changes and revisions needed for code book and if this was a legal issue

Alderman Lux requested the Westside Sign committee provide the board with a spreadsheet with the cost of the project showing an itemized list of donated materials, labor and funds that will give a view of what is still needed for a completed project.

Mayor asked for recommendations for appointments.

Meeting adjourned at 8:30 p.m.

Scott Fahrer, Mayor
